Rock Island Library Offers Two Holiday Programs for Families

December 1, 2006

Polar Express Holiday Story

The Rock Island Public Library will offer families a chance to experience the magic of the holiday story, "The Polar Express," at two times and library locations on Saturday, Dec. 9. Children's Department librarians will read the popular holiday favorite at the following times and locations:

2 p.m. at the Rock Island Library Southwest Branch, 9010 Ridgewood Road

4:30 p.m. at the Rock Island Main Library downtown, 401 19th Street

This event is free and open to the public. Roundtrip passage to the North Pole includes the story, cookies and hot chocolate. Reservations are required. To register, please call the Children's Department at (309) 732-7360.

Make a last minute gift for Mom or Dad on Dec. 20!

Kids can make a sweet-smelling cinnamon Christmas tree ornament at the Rock Island Main Library, 401 19th Street, on Wednesday, Dec. 20, from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. The free craft for kids is in the library's Community Room on the 2nd floor. This event is free and open to the public. Registration required; please call 732-7360 to sign up.
